28 It is clear that the Rules in force do not at all favour the grant of a pension to the Pandit. His long service, coupled with the fact of his having a bonus as a gratuity under particulars would be more welcome & better appreciated in the present circumstances of the man than a pension which has not often all the engines of him for any appreciable length of time.

As to his merits there can be no question. None can be more zealous & he could not be more faithful & more devoted to his duties.

The circumstances mentioned in deputy Secretary's note of 19.3.1913 are not in my opinion so extraordinary as to justify a pension or gratuity outside the rules in accordance with the spirit of Art 499 M.S.R.

36. As a purely compassionate grant a gratuity of Rs 1000/- appears too high for one drawing Rs 60 a month. Even for extraordinary pensions, + gratuities which are given when a man becomes helpless owing to devotion to duty the limits fixed in Arts 396 & 401 M.S.R are much lower. In my respectful opinion a gratuity of six months' pay would be appropriate in this case and to this extent I acquiesce in the Council resolution.

The Finial Note of the Second Councillor.

The Mysore City Municipal Council and the Local Surgeon to Govt. strongly recommend that a pension of Rs 20 per mensem may be granted to Kempa Rama Pandit, the special features of his case being as follow :—

(a) The official died soon after service as the head of a newly started indigenous institution.

(b) After 20 years' service he was struck down with paralysis and from the tenor of the reports received his position in his old age is helpless.

2. Though it is open to Govt. to sanction a pension arbitrarily fixed under Art 499 of the Mysore Service Regulations, the ordinary rules not permitting it to grant in a case of this kind, yet it is deemed more expedient to sanction a bonus which would be more welcome and better appreciated by the person concerned in his present condition

3. In recognition of the good work done by him a bonus of Rs 1000, half of this being contributed by the Nagpur Municipality, ~~was~~ is considered reasonable by the Council. But the Financial Secretary acquiesces in the opinion of the Council only to the extent of granting a gratuity of 6 months' pay or Rs 360 in all.

4. The Financial Secretary's objection to the amount is based on Rls 396 & 401 of the Service Regulations; but the amount of Rs 1000 is fixed by the Council having regard to the "special circumstances" of the case under Rl 499 of the Service Regulations. Rls 396 & 401 apply only to ordinary cases whereas Rl 499 governs special ~~cases~~ ones such as that of Keshpa Rama Pandit.

40. Submitted to His Highness.

I submit herewith 'a Final Note by the Second Councillor' in regard to the grant of a bonus or gratuity to Kemparama Pandit, senior Pandit of the Indigenous Hospital, Mysore City, since retired.

2. The Council are of opinion that a bonus of Rs. 1,000 may be given if the Mysore Municipality is willing to contribute its quota of the amount. But the Financial Secretary considers this too high and acquiesces only to the extent of granting a gratuity of 6 months' pay, or Rs.360 in all. The Second Councillor, in his Final Note, states that, if a bonus of Rs.1,000 is thought too much in the light of the Financial Secretary's remarks, it may be reduced to Rs.500.

3. In these circumstances, I am of opinion that Rs.720 or the equivalent of one year's salary may be sanctioned if the Municipality is willing to pay its share.

SIR,

In forwarding the marginally noted papers on the subject of the grant of pension to Kempa Ramapandit, the Senior Pandit of the Indigenous Hospital, Mysore, I have the honour to stat that Kempa Ramapandit was struck with paralysis and is now incapable of earning his livelihood. The District Medical Officer recommended in his No.2654 dated 3rd June 1912 that the Pandit might be retired from 1st ~~October~~ July last 1912 as he was permanently incapacitated from doing his duties. The Pandit then submitted a petition for pension and was informed in reply that the Service Regulations do not provide for the grant of pensions to Municipal servants in charge of grant-in-aid schools and institutions(Article 247 clause 2 of the Mysore Service Regulations). His further representation on the subject and the Senior Surgeon's letter No.2133 dated 15th November 1912 recommending that he be granted some pension or gratuity as he is utterly helpless, are herewith submitted for your kind perusal.

1. Service Register.
2. Copy of District Medical Officer's No.2654 dated 3rd June 1912.
3. Senior Surgeon's No.2133 dated 15th November 1912.
4. Kemparama Pandit's applicatien dated 24th October 1912.
5. Extract of Council's Resolution dated 21st December 1912.
6. Extract from Schedule of Establishment.

2. The pay of the Pandit was contributed from from the Municipal and District Funds @ 1/3 and 2/3rds respective-ly as ordered in Government Proceedings No.1572-5/L.E.79-92 dated 28th July 1892. He was employed on 1st September 1892 on Rs. 25 per month and rose to Rs.60/- on 1st July 1903. He continued to draw that pay till the end of June 1912 when he took leave.

3. The question of the payment of some pension to the Pandit came before the Council on the 21st ultimo and the Councillors were unanimously of opinion that as he rendered very good service as the head of a newly started indigenous institution, it was desirable that a pension should be given him for his maintenance in his old age. A copy of the Council's resolution is enclosed for ready reference.

4. As per Service Register enclosed, the Pandit has worked for 20 years and according to the ordinary rules of pension he would be entitled to a pension of 1/3 of the emoluments or -- Rs.20/- a month.

5. Under Articles 498 and 499 of the Mysore Service -- Regulations, it is discretionary with Government to grant special or arbitrary pension in such cases. I beg that you will be so -- good as to place the above papers before Government and obtain -- their orders to pay to Kempa Rama Pandit a pension to the extent of Rs.20/- a month or such sum as they may deem proper to fix in the case. The enclosed papers may also be kindly returned when -- done with.

I have the honour to report that the Head Pandit Kempa Rama Pandit of the Indigenous Hospital, Mysore, has been permanent-ly incapaciated for duty and to recommend that the Pandit be -- retired from service from 1st July 1912.

The Committee of the Ayurvedic College has resolved to apply to Government for the services of Apothecary Mr.S.Venkoba Rao to take charge of the Ayurvedic College.

It would be in the interest of the Indigenous Hospital if the Apothecary were appointed Medical Officer in charge. He will be better able to manage the Institution with the help of the Assistant Pandit than any other Pandit.
